Parks & Recreation

1978 Article Index

SUBJECT INDEX

ARTS

Articipation, Dr. Ronald Simpson, Nancy Press, Peg Hoetsch, June, page 26.
Cooperating for Culture, Arlene G. Perry, October, page 37.

CONGRESS FOR RECREATION AND PARKS

Congress Highlights Las Vegas, 1977, January, page 35.
1978 Congress for Recreation and Parks "In Search of Balance," September, page 39.

CONSERVATION

Congress Moves to Calm the Stormy Boundard Waters, Carol Dana, April, page 30.
Corporate Land Donations: Good Ecology Can Be Good Business, Too, Carol Dana, July, page 27.
Economic Benefits of Historic Preservation, Thomas D. Bever, August, page 28.
Skirmishing Over the Last Frontier—The Alaska Lands Proposals: A Conservationist's Perspective, Congressman John F. Seiberling, February, page 28.
Urban Forest—Can It Survive?, An, Theodore Mastroianni, December, page 42.

DESIGN

Design Directions: Making Less Into More, John W. Blaicher, May, page 34.
Designing Playgrounds for Multifamily Dwellings, Paul Corrado, February, page 42.
Fun Under a Sun-Powered Roof, May, page 36.
Lake Pool Helps Handicapped Take the Plunge, May, page 31.
Net Success: New Racquet-Sports Center Proves It Can Pay Its Way, A, May, page 42.
New "Old Swimming Hole," A, May, page 38.
"Participatory Play:" Pitting Energy Against Opportunity, May, page 32.
Portland's Instant Success: An Above-Ground Recreation Pool, May, page 33.

Parks & Recreation

1978 Article Index

SUBJECT INDEX

ARTS

Articipation, Dr. Ronald Simpson, Nancy Press, Peg Hoetsch, June, page 26.
Cooperating for Culture, Arlene G. Perry, October, page 37.

CONGRESS FOR RECREATION AND PARKS

Congress Highlights Las Vegas, 1977, January, page 35.
1978 Congress for Recreation and Parks "In Search of Balance," September, page 39.

CONSERVATION

Congress Moves to Calm the Stormy Boundard Waters, Carol Dana, April, page 30.
Corporate Land Donations: Good Ecology Can Be Good Business, Too, Carol Dana, July, page 27.
Economic Benefits of Historic Preservation, Thomas D. Bever, August, page 28.
Skirmishing Over the Last Frontier—The Alaska Lands Proposals: A Conservationist's Perspective, Congressman John F. Seiberling, February, page 28.
Urban Forest—Can It Survive?, An, Theodore Mastroianni, December, page 42.

DESIGN

Design Directions: Making Less Into More, John W. Blaicher, May, page 34.
Designing Playgrounds for Multifamily Dwellings, Paul Corrado, February, page 42.
Fun Under a Sun-Powered Roof, May, page 36.
Lake Pool Helps Handicapped Take the Plunge, May, page 31.
Net Success: New Racquet-Sports Center Proves It Can Pay Its Way, A, May, page 42.
New "Old Swimming Hole," A, May, page 38.
"Participatory Play:" Pitting Energy Against Opportunity, May, page 32.
Portland's Instant Success: An Above-Ground Recreation Pool, May, page 33.

EDUCATION

The Burning Tree Experiment, Bonnie Fogel, March, page 24.

FACILITY PLANNING

Design Directions: Making Less Into More, John W. Blaicher, May, page 34.
Designing Playgrounds for Multifamily Dwellings, Paul Corrado, February, page 42.
Filling a Security Gap, May, page 41.
Fun Under a Sun-Powered Roof, May, page 36.
Getting Your Pool on a Paying Basis, Samuel R. Wise, March, page 31.
Hitting the Bull's Eye, Dick Byler, July, page 26.
Net Success: New Racquet-Sports Center Proves It Can Pay Its Way, A, John R. Marshall, May, page 42.
New "Old Swimming Hole," A, May, page 38.
"Participatory Play:" Pitting Energy Against Opportunity, May, page 32.
Portland's Instant Success: An Above-Ground Recreation Pool, May, page 33.
Setting User Fees and Charges, Dr. Linn R. Rockwood, March, page 29.

FINANCE & BUDGETING

Citizens Get a High Return on Their Tax Investment, Richard C. Trudeau, September, page 52.
Getting the Pieces to Fall Into Place, John A. Conner, Jr., and Katherine Gaddy, April, page 37.
Getting Your Pool on a Paying Basis, Samuel R. Wise, March, page 31.
Know Your Funding Sources, James A. Rienhardt, October, page 24.
People Pressure: Meeting the Fiscal Challenge, August, page 22.
Setting User Fees and Charges, Dr. Linn R. Rockwood, March, page 29.

FUTURE

Widget Watching: Do-It-Yourself Forecasting, John Blair, May, page 25.

HISTORIC PRESERVATION

Economic Benefits of Historic Preservation, Thomas D. Bever, August, page 28.
Mixing History with Recreation, John R. Middlebrooks, June, page 22.

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

Congress Moves to Calm the Stormy Boundary Waters, Carol Dana, April, page 30.
People Pressure: Meeting the Fiscal Challenge, August, page 22.

LAND USE

Skirmishing Over the Last Frontier— The Alaska Lands Proposal: A Conservationist's Perspective, Congressman John F. Seiberling, February, page 28.

LIGHTNING

Lightning: The Enemy Above, July, page 22.

MAINTENANCE

Lake Associations Ponder Algae and Weed Control, May, page 46.
Michigan Puts the Unemployed to WORC, Brigid Sullivan Flynn, May, page 47.

MANAGEMENT

Close-Up on a Recreation Trainee Program, Jeanne Baer, November, page 27.
Delegation—A Misunderstood Management Concept, Joseph Bannon, March, page 38.
Effective Time Management, B. G. Simpson, September, page 61.
Evaluate Your Personnel Services for Greater Productivity, Glen D. Alexander, October, page 30.
Evaluating Recreation Programs, Monica Nolan, December, page 40.
Michigan Puts the Unemployed to WORC, Brigid Sullivan Flynn, May, page 47.

NRPA ACTIVITIES

Congress Highlights, Las Vegas 1977, January, page 35.
1978 Congress for Recreation and Parks "In Search of Balance," September, page 39.
Feast of Friendship, A, February, page 24.
Kids Dog Shows Spread the Smiles, March, page 42.
Producing "In Search of Balance," September, page 56.
Twenty Years Before the Masthead, Carol Dana, February, page 26.

PARKLANDS

Congress Moves to Calm the Stormy Boundary Waters, Carol Dana, April, page 30.
Corporate Land Donations: Good Ecology Can Be Good Business, Too, Carol Dana, July, page 27.
Escape to the Islands—In Boston Harbor, Carol Dana, March, page 34.
Underwater Parks: An Unexplored Recreation Frontier?, Thomas S. Warner and Donald F. Holecek, November, page 18.
Urban Forest—Can It Survive?, An, Theodore Mastroianni, December, page 42.

PERSONNEL

Evaluate Your Personnel Services for Greater Productivity, Glen D. Alexander, October, page 30.
Michigan Puts the Unemployed to WORC, Brigid Sullivan Flynn, May, page 47.

PLAYGROUNDS

Designing Playgrounds for Multifamily Dwellings, Paul Corrado, February, page 42.

PROGRAMMING

Anticipation, Dr. Ronald Simpson, Nancy Press, Peg Hoetsch, June, page 26.
Bringing the City to the Country, Michael Maguiski, November, page 25.
Burning Tree Experiment, The, Bonnie Fogel, March, page 24.
Cross-Country Skiing: Good Winter Recreation that Pays Its Own Way, O. A. Christiansen, February, page 46.

For Adventure, Seniors Go Camping, Henry Ong and Mary Lou Coleman, April, page 44.
Gaining Awareness Through Adventure, David Broida, Bill Proudman, Geri Magee, June, page 30.
Getting the Pieces to Fall Into Place, John A. Conner Jr. and Katherine Gaddy, April, page 37.
Getting to the Grass Roots, Charles Christie, June, page 28.
Hitting the Bull's Eye, Dick Byler, July, page 26.
How to Kick Off a City Recreation Program, James Brown, November, page 30.
Kids Dog Shows Spread the Smiles, March, page 42.
Mixing History with Recreation, John R. Middlebrooks, June, page 22.
New Recreational Possibilities for the Handicapped, May, page 29.
Orienteering, Rick Johnson and Janna Rankin, June, page 27.
Plant Program for Kid-Sized Green Thumbs, A, Douglas McEwen, October, page 32.
Recreation Reaches a Migrant Community, Tina Romano, August, page 25.
Senior Adults Get Physically Fit, William Lederer, October, page 40.
Spelunking: An Interpretive Frontier, John Kalish, August, page 33.
Sponsor Your Own Run, Dr. Morgan C. Powell and Ronald A. Secrist, November, page 22.
Taking Trips Together, Gertrude Gross, July, page 33.
Walk Your Best, Roland Carignan, July, page 30.

SPECIAL POPULATIONS

For Adventure, Seniors Go Camping, Henry Ong and Mary Lou Coleman, April, page 44.
Lake Pool Helps Handicapped Take the Plunge, May, page 31.
New Recreational Possibilities for the Handicapped, May, page 29.
Recreation Reaches a Migrant Community, Tina Romano, August, page 25.
Senior Adults Get Physically Fit, William Lederer, October, page 40.
Taking Trips Together, Gertrude Gross, July, page 33.

TAXES

Citizens Get a High Return on Their Tax Investment, Richard C. Trudeau, September, page 52.
People Pressure: Meeting the Fiscal Challenge, August, page 22.

VIEWPOINTS

Interview: William J. Whalen, Director, National Park Service, February, page 34.
This Year, Make Time for Fun!, Mark Bricklin, April, page 40.

WASHINGTON SCENE

Professionalizing the Park and Recreation Movement, February, page 18.
Expiration of Older Americans Act Brings Focus on Flaws, March, page 18.
Community Schools: Will Federal Policies Help or Hinder?, April, page 20.
Mainstreaming: In Life and Legislation, May, page 18.
A Legislative Update for the 95th Congress, June, page 16.
Forging National Tourism Development Policy, July, page 16.
Urban Park Initiatives Advance on Capitol Hill, August, page 16.
Focus on Coastal Recreation, September, page 28.
Youth Camp Safety: The Unresolved Issue of Federal Responsibility, October, page 16.
Congress Approves Omnibus Parks Bill, November, page 14.
Rehabilitation Act Extended, December, page 16.

TITLE INDEX

Anticipation, Dr. Ronald Simpson, Nancy Press, and Peg Hoetsch, June, page 26.
Bringing the City to the Country, Michael Magulski, November, page 25.
Burning Tree Experiment, The, Bonnie Fogel, March, page 24.
Citizens Get A High Return on Their Tax Investment, Richard C. Trudeau, September, page 52.
Close-Up on a Recreation Trainee Program, Jeanne Baer, November, page 27.
Congress Highlights, 1977, January, page 35.
Congress for Recreation and Parks "In Search of Balance," 1978, September, page 39.
Congress Moves to Calm the Stormy Boundary Waters, Carol Dana, April, page 30.
Cooperating for Culture, Arlene G. Perry, October, page 37.
Corporate Land Donations: Good Ecology Can Be Good Business, Too, Carol Dana, July, page 27.
Cross-Country Skiing: Good Winter Recreation that Pays Its Own Way, O. A. Christiansen, February, page 46.
Delegation—A Misunderstood Management Concept, Joseph Bannon, March, page 38.
Design Directions: Making Less Into More, John Blair, May, page 34.
Designing Playgrounds for Multifamily Dwellings, Paul Corrado, February, page 42.
Economic Benefits of Historic Preservation, Thomas D. Bever, August, page 28.
Effective Time Management, B. G. Simpson, September, page 61.
Escape to the Islands—In Boston Harbor, Carol Dana, March, page 34.
Evaluate Your Personnel Services for Greater Productivity, Glen D. Alexander, October, page 30.
Evaluating Recreation Programs, Monica Nolan, December, page 40.
Feast of Friendship, A, February, page 24.
Filling A Security Gap, May, page 41.
For Adventure, Seniors Go Camping, Henry Ong and Mary Lou Coleman, April, page 44.
Fun Under a Sun-Powered Roof, May, page 36.
Gaining Awareness Through Adventure, David Broida, Bill Proudman, and Geri Magee, June, page 30.
Getting the Pieces to Fall Into Place, John A. Conner, Jr. and Katherine Gaddy, April, page 37.
Getting to the Grass Roots, Charles Christie, June, page 28.
Getting Your Public Pool on a Paying Basis, Samuel R. Wise, March, page 31.
Hitting the Bull's Eye, Dick Byler, July, page 26.
How to Kick Off a City Recreation Program, James Brown, November, page 30.
Interview: William J. Whalen, Director, National Park Service, February, page 34.
Kids Dog Shows Spread the Smiles, March, page 42.
Know Your Funding Sources, James A. Rienhardt, October, page 24.
Lake Associations Ponder Algae and Weed Control, May, page 46.
Lake Pool Helps Handicapped Take the Plunge, May, page 31.
Lightning: The Enemy Above, July, page 22.

Michigan Puts the Unemployed to WORC, Brigid Sullivan Flynn, May, page 47.
Mixing History with Recreation, John R. Middlebrooks, June, page 22.
Net Success: New Racquet-Sports Center Proves It Can Pay Its Way, A, John R. Marshall, May, page 42.
New "Old Swimming Hole," A, May, page 38.
New Recreational Possibilities for the Handicapped, May, page 29.
Orienteering, Rick Johnson and Janna Rankin, June, page 27.
"Participatory Play:" Pitting Energy Against Opportunity, May, page 32.
People Pressure: Meeting the Fiscal Challenge, August, page 22.
Plant Program for Kid-Sized Green Thumbs, A, Douglas McEwen, October, page 32.
Portland's Instant Success: An Above-Ground Recreation Pool, May, page 33.
Producing "In Search of Balance," September, page 56.
Recreation Reaches A Migrant Community, Tina Romano, August, page 25.
Senior Adults Get Physically Fit, William Lederer, October, page 40.
Setting User Fees and Charges, Dr. Linn R. Rockwood, March, page 29.
Skirmishing Over the Last Frontier—The Alaska Lands Proposals: A Conservationist's Perspective, Congressman John F. Seiberling, February, page 28.
Spelunking: An Interpretive Frontier, John Kalish, August, page 33.
Sponsor Your Own Run, Dr. Morgan C. Powell and Ronald A. Secrist, November, page 22.
Taking Trips Together, Gertrude Gross, July, page 33.
This Year, Make Time for Fun, Mark Bricklin, April, page 40.
Twenty Years Before the Masthead, Carol Dana, February, page 26.
Underwater Parks: An Unexplored Recreation Frontier, Thomas D. Warner and Donald F. Holecek, November, page 18.
Urban Forest—Can It Survive?, An, Theodore Mastroianni, December, page 42.
Walk Your Best, Roland Carignan, July, page 30.
Widget Watching: Do-It-Yourself Forecasting, John Bair, May, page 25.

AUTHORS

Alexander, Glen D., Evaluate Your Personnel Services for Greater Productivity, October, page 30.
Baer, Jeanne, Close-Up on a Recreation Trainee Program, November, page 27.
Bannon, Joseph, Delegation—A Misunderstood Management Concept, March, page 38.
Bever, Thomas D., Economic Benefits of Historic Preservation, August, page 28.
Blaicher, John W., Design Directions: Making Less Into More, May, page 34.
Blair, John, Widget Watching: Do-It-Yourself Forecasting, May, page 25.
Bricklin, Mark, This Year, Make Time for Fun, April, page 40.
Broida, David, Gaining Awareness Through Adventure, June, page 30.
Brown, James, How to Kick Off a City Recreation Program, November, page 30.
Byler, Dick, Hitting the Bull's Eye, July, page 26.
Carrignan, Roland, Walk Your Best, July, page 30.
Christiansen, O. A., Cross-Country Skiing: Good Winter Recreation that Pays Its Own Way, February, page 46.
Christie, Charles, Getting to the Grass Roots, June, page 28.
Coleman, Mary Lou, For Adventure, Seniors Go Camping, April, page 44.
Conner, John A., Jr., Getting the Pieces to Fall Into Place, April, page 37.
Corrado, Paul, Designing Playgrounds for Multifamily Dwellings, February, page 42.
Dana, Carol, Congress Moves to Calm the Stormy Boundary Waters, April, page 30.
Dana, Carol, Corporate Land Donations: Good Ecology Can Be Good Business, Too, July, page 27.
Dana, Carol, Escape to the Islands—In Boston Harbor, March, page 34.
Dana, Carol, Twenty Years Before the Masthead, February, page 26.
Flynn, Brigid Sullivan, Michigan Puts the Unemployed to WORC, May, page 47.
Fogel, Bonnie, The Burning Tree Experiment, March, page 24.
Gaddy, Katherine, Getting the Pieces to Fall Into Place, April, page 37.
Gross, Gertrude, Taking Trips Together, July, page 33.
Hoetsch, Peg, Articipation, June, page 26.
Holecek, Donald F., Underwater Parks: An Unexplored Recreation Frontier?, November, page 18.
Johnson, Rick, Orienteering, June, page 27.
Kalish, John, Spelunking: An Interpretive Frontier, August, page 33.
Lederer, William, Senior Adults Get Physically Fit, October, page 40.
McEwen, Douglas, A Plant Program for Kid-Sized Green Thumbs, October, page 32.
Magee, Geri, Gaining Awareness Through Adventure, June, page 30.
Magulski, Michael, Bringing the City to the Country, November, page 25.
Marshall, John R., A Net Success: New Racquet-Sports Center Proves It Can Pay Its Way, May, page 42.
Mastroianni, Theodore, An Urban Forest—Can It Survive?, December, page 42.
Middlebrooks, John R., Mixing History with Recreation, June, page 22.
Nolan, Monica, Evaluating Recreation Programs, December, page 40.
Ong, Henry, For Adventure, Seniors Go Camping, April, page 44.
Perry, Arlene G., Cooperating for Culture, October, page 37.
Powell, Dr. Morgan C., Sponsor Your Own Run, November, page 22.
Press, Nancy, Articipation, June, page 26.
Proudman, Bill, Gaining Awareness Through Adventure, June, page 30.
Rankin, Janna, Orienteering, June, page 27.
Reinhardt, James A., Know Your Funding Sources, October, page 24.
Rockwood, Dr. Linn R., Setting User Fees and Charges, March, page 29.
Romano, Tina, Recreation Reaches a Migrant Community, August, page 25.
Secrist, Ronald A., Sponsor Your Own Run, November, page 22.
Seiberling, Congressman John F., Skirmishing Over the Last Frontier—The Alaska Lands Proposals: A Conservationist's Perspective, February, page 28.
Simpson, B. G., Effective Time Management, September, page 61.
Simpson, Dr. Ronald, Articipation, June, page 26.
Trudeau, Richard C., Citizens Get a High Return on Their Tax Investment, September, page 52.
Warner, Thomas D., Underwater Parks: An Unexplored Recreation Frontier, November, page 18.
Wise, Samuel R., Getting Your Public Pool on a Paying Basis, March, page 31.